Corporate volunteering brochure

WHO ARE WE?

Implemented in the Montréal/Laval/L'Assomption region, the Société de Saint-Vincent de Paul's mission is to provide help to any person in a difficult situation, regardless of language, culture or religion. Founded on the actions of our volunteers and their desire to create meaningful relationships, our interventions aim to lend an ear as well as a hand and companionship to our community's most vulnerable individuals.

Dignity, self-reliance and community melding are core values of our service offering, might it be through our food assistance, stay-in-school or social integration programs or through an access to basic material necessities.

Established in the Montréal community since 1848, the Société de Saint-Vincent de Paul is an international organization active in 140 different countries and relying on an estimated 800,000 volunteers.
